

ACCPA CRIME PREVENTION AND COMMUNITY SAFETY CONFERENCE

TRADESHOW

2020 PACKAGES

The Alberta Community Crime Prevention Association (ACCPA) was established in 1989 to provide a link between police services and the community at large. ACCPA is a non-profit group registered under the Societies Act of Alberta and is fully endorsed by the Alberta Chiefs of Police Association. ACCPA plays a critical role in promoting training, education and dissemination of crime prevention-related information throughout the province of Alberta.

ACCPA is pleased to announce the theme for our 2020 conference “Local & International Perspectives in Community Safety & Well-Being”. The event will be held May 4-7, 2020 at the Delta Edmonton south Hotel and Conference Centre. Pre-Conference Training sessions will be offered again this year on May 4-5.

Our event offers an outstanding opportunity to promote your business. We encourage you to explore the attached exhibitor opportunities and invite you to pursue an opportunity that meets your needs.

Designed to bring together community members, business owners, government and law enforcement professionals, our conference will illustrate the importance of technology, collaboration and partnership with community safety stakeholders. Targeted to individuals invested in rural, remote and urban communities, attendees will hear compelling stories and learn from those who have had a genuine impact on changing peoples’ lives.

This year, our speakers will focus on the following community safety themes:

- Current and emerging issues in community safety,
- Planning, design and structural approaches to community safety, and
- Technology and industry advances in community safety.

View our conference website at <https://www.albertacrimeprevention.com/2020-conference/> for more information.

We look forward to partnering with you to tailor an exhibitor package just right for your business. Your support will go a long way toward enhancing community safety efforts in our province and making this event a great success!

Sincerely,

Mark Kay

Companies that have paid in full will NOT receive a refund. Cancellations must be received in writing (email or regular mail).

EXHIBITOR RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Arrangement of Exhibits: An exhibiting company may purchase a maximum of two 6' x 8' booth spaces. All multiple booth spaces purchased by one company must be adjacent to one another to form a single exhibit. Exhibits shall not obstruct the view of other exhibitors. Any portion of an exhibit that obstructs the view, interferes with the privileges of other exhibitors, extends beyond the designated booth space, or for any reason becomes objectionable must be immediately modified or removed by exhibitor. Show management reserves the right to inspect the quality of the appearance of each booth prior to show opening. The booth area is carpeted. Exhibitors shall not lay carpet in their booth. ACCPA reserves the right to modify booth assignments or floor configurations at any time. Standard booths may not exceed 14' in height. No banners – suspended from the ceiling or otherwise more than 14' in height – are allowed. Each exhibitor is entitled to a reasonable sight line from the aisle regardless of the size of the exhibit. Therefore, ACCPA has developed the abovementioned regulations for all exhibitors to follow.
2. Subleasing of Space: Booth space may not be subleased.
3. Booth Setup & Occupancy: Booths may be setup during the published set-up times only. All displays are to be completely installed and ready for inspection by show management by the published inspection time. A representative of the exhibiting company must be on hand during the inspection period. If booths are not fully set up and ready for inspection, show management reserves the right to take appropriate action. In no case will the lack of preparation on the part of an exhibitor be allowed to impede the timely opening of the exhibition.
4. Fire, Safety and Health: The exhibitor assumes all responsibility for compliance with local, city, and provincial ordinances and regulations covering fire, safety, and health. All exhibit equipment and materials must be located within the booth. Only fireproof materials may be used in displays, and all necessary fire precautions must be taken by the exhibitor. ACCPA does not allow the display or distribution of balloons of any type.
5. Labor: Rules and regulations for union labor are made by the local unions and may change at any time. Where union labor is required because of building or contractor requirements, it will be necessary for the exhibitor to comply with these regulations.
6. Sound Devices and Lighting: Public address, sound-producing, or amplification devices that project sound must be kept at a conversational level and must not interfere with other exhibitors. Any form of attention-getting device or presentation must be terminated when crowds obstruct aisles or infringe upon another exhibitor's display. ACCPA reserves the right to restrict the use of glaring or objectionable lighting effects, or public address, sound-producing, or other amplification devices that project sound. Music, whether vocal or instrumental, is subject to approval by show management.
7. Delivery and Removal during Show: Under no circumstances will the addition to or removal of any portion of an exhibit be permitted during show hours. All booths must remain intact until the close of the show. Early dismantle and/or removal of an exhibit may result in the loss of exhibit privileges for future shows.
8. Exhibitor's Personnel and Others: All exhibitor personnel MUST always wear an ACCPA name tag at all times during the conference. There is no limit to the number of individuals that the exhibitor may have in their booth. However, exhibitors must limit the number of personnel in their booth when crowds obstruct aisles or infringe upon another exhibitor's display. Distribution of advertising material and souvenirs must be confined to the exhibitor's booth. Selling, soliciting, and canvassing in the exhibit hall are strictly prohibited. All booths must be manned by the exhibiting company's personnel who are qualified to discuss details of their company's products or services. User clients may be allowed in the exhibiting company's booth for the purpose of selling the exhibiting company's products or services. Canvassing or distribution of advertising material or souvenirs in the exhibit hall by representatives of non-exhibiting firms is strictly forbidden. Selling of merchandise on the exhibit floor is subject to provincial law.
9. Storage: The exhibitor contractor will store packing boxes or crates during the show at no cost. ACCPA assumes no responsibility for damage to or loss of packing boxes or crates.

10. Security: ACCPA makes no warranty, express or implied, that the services it furnishes will avert or prevent occurrences that may result in loss or damage.
11. Liability: ACCPA will not be liable for loss or damage to the property of the exhibitor or his/her representatives or employees from theft, fire, accident, or other causes. ACCPA will not be liable for injury to exhibitors or their employees or for damage to property in their custody, owned or controlled by them, which claims for damages, injury, etc., may be incident to or arise from or be in any way connected with their use or occupation of display space; and the exhibitor shall indemnify and hold ACCPA harmless against such claims. The exhibitor assumes all liability for any damage to the facility's floor, walls, lighting fixtures, etc., as a result of exhibitor negligence. The exhibitor will abide by and observe all laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances of any governmental authority and of the contracted facility.
12. Private Demonstrations: Private demonstrations are meant to educate one client (individual or small group) about specific proprietary products and services. Exhibitors may offer private demonstrations within the confines of their booth in the exhibit hall during exhibit hours only. Exhibiting companies may conduct private demonstrations off-site at other locations only after conference hours. Non-exhibitors may not provide demonstrations.
13. Show Management: The exhibition is organized and managed by ACCPA. Any matters not covered in these Rules and Regulations are subject to the interpretation of the show manager and the ACCPA Conference Committee, and all exhibitors must abide by their decisions. Exhibitors must comply with the convention centre's policies and procedures.
