Issued December 2019

SECURING EFFICIENT AND EFFECTIVE POLICING AND RURAL CRIME REDUCTION IN THE UNITED KINGDOM: THE ROLE OF COMMUNITY SAFETY PARTNERSHIPS, RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITIES AND RURAL POLICING STRATEGY

JULIA MULLIGAN

North Yorkshire Police, Fire & Crime Commissioner, Office of the North Yorkshire Police, Fire & Crime Commissioner

Participants of this workshop will gain an understanding of the role of the Office of the North Yorkshire Police, Fire & Crime Commissioner in ensuring efficient and effective policing, crime response, and prevention. Participants will gain an understanding of the evolution and role of Community Safety Partnerships in the UK, and of rural crime prevention and response in North Yorkshire through the development and implementation of North Yorkshire's Rural Policing Strategy 2016-2019. Participants will gain an understanding of the UK College of Policing's Crime Reduction Toolkit, and how strategies and concepts from the toolkit and UK rural crime prevention and response, may be applied within Alberta and other Canadian communities.
